INDORE – CONNECTIVITY THAT DEFINES DISTINCTION

As India’s cleanest city, Indore pairs its wide boulevards and seamless transport with an elevated way of life, where connectivity is not just convenience but the true hallmark of growth, progress, and premiumness.

Airport¹

A new terminal is set to come up at Indore’s Devi Ahilyabai Holkar Airport within the next three years, expanding annual passenger capacity to 5.5 million and ensuring a more seamless, comfortable travel experience for Indoris.

Agra-Bombay Highway

The Agra-Bombay Highway (NH-52), commonly known as AB Road, is one of the most significant highways passing through Indore. It plays a crucial role in trade and transportation.

Ahilya Path²

Ahilya Path is a 15-kilometre-long and 75-metre-wide project aimed at enhancing urban infrastructure, decongesting major roads and improving connectivity in key commercial and residential areas.

Super Corridor³

The Indore Super Corridor is a 12 km long and 250 feet wide stretch connecting MR-10 and Airport Road. It is designed to provide a hub that keeps you close to work, home and other essential activities, giving you more time to unwind.

Indore-Ujjain Metro⁴

The Indore-Ujjain Metro is a proposed rapid transit project designed to enhance connectivity between Indore and Ujjain.

The infrastructure facilities mentioned are proposed to be developed by the Governmental Authorities and other authorities and we cannot predict the timing or the actual provisioning of these facilities, as the same is beyond our control.
